MRS. CAROLINE E. EARL

Word received from Mrs. J. B. Quiggle, who was called to Greenville, Ill., by the death of her mother states that her mother, who was past 89 years of age, died as a result of a fall which resulted in a broken hip and shoulder and that she survived the injuries for six days.

We append an obituary taken from the Greenville paper:

The funeral of Mrs. Caroline E. Earl, who had been a resident of Greenville for nearly a half century, was held from her late home on East Washington street at three o'clock Thursday afternoon. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Mr. Robinson, pastor of the Baptist church.

Mrs. Earl was aged 89 years, 5 months and sixteen days. Her husband departed this life in 1903 and her remains were laid by his side in Forest Home cemetery.

She leaves two daughters and one son, Mrs. Nellie Crosby of Greenville, Mrs. J. B. Quiggle, of Groton, S. D., and Frank L. Earl of Muskegon, all of whom were here to attend the funeral.

Other relatives from out of town who were present at the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Verne A. Earl of Muskegon; Mrs. E. J. Quiggle of Groton, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Chickering and Mr. and Mrs. Duane Foss and family of Belding, and Mrs. Eliza Earl and son, William, of Howell, Mich.
